Dedication

The 1983 Warrior Staff proudly dedicates this edition of the Warrior to our two senior sponsors.

Pat Gatlin

Pat Gatlin is a very dedicated teacher. She shows students that she cares if they make it in life and provides that extra help that means so much to us all. We honor this lovely lady.

Sonya Burford

Ann Sprayberry

Ann Sprayberry is a very sincere and dedicated teacher. She has been at Ohatchee for three years. Within those three years, she has shown kindness and generosity toward students, and that has been greatly appreciated. We acknowledge her many contributions by dedicating the 1983 Warrior to her.

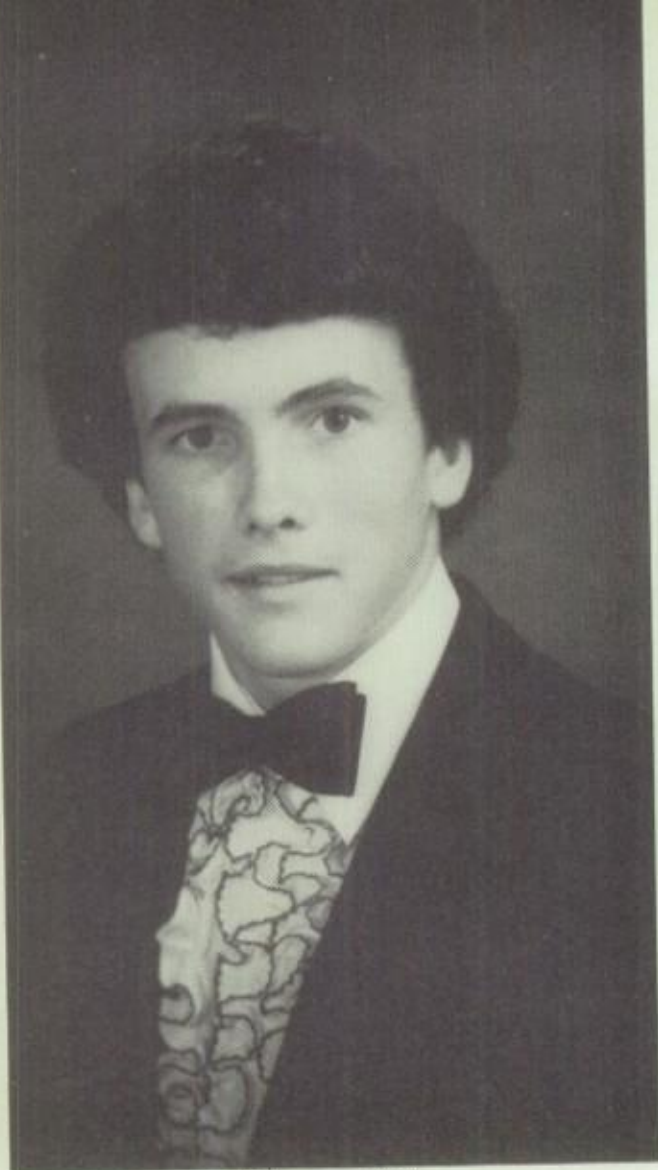

Kim Mills

SENIORS AND

1977

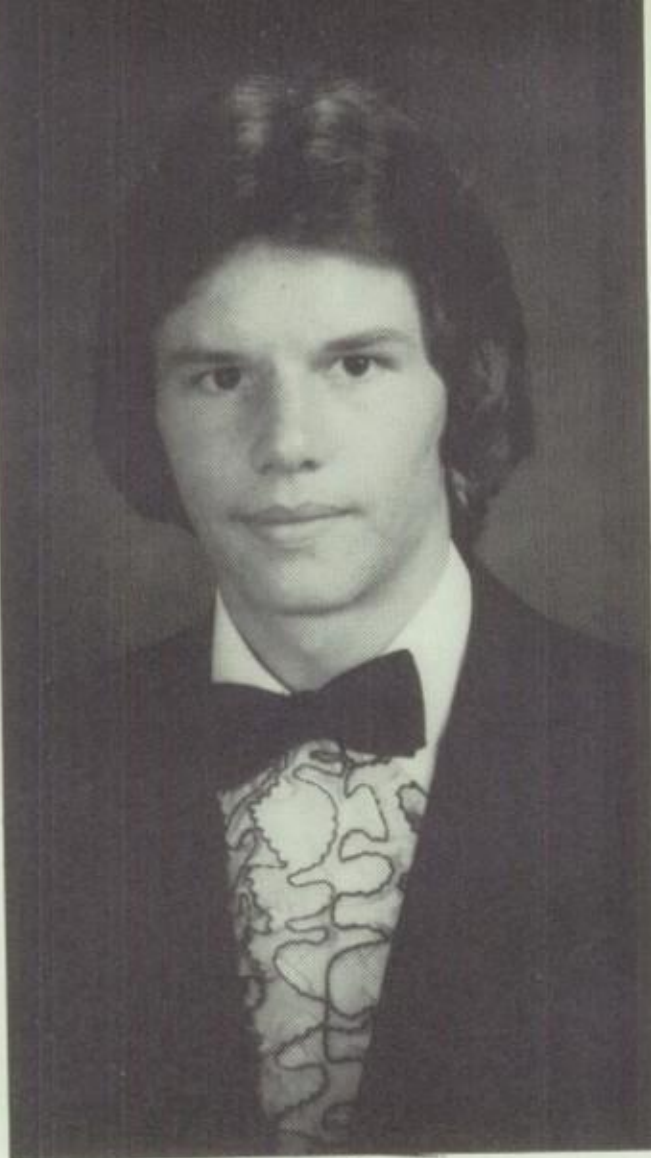

STAFF

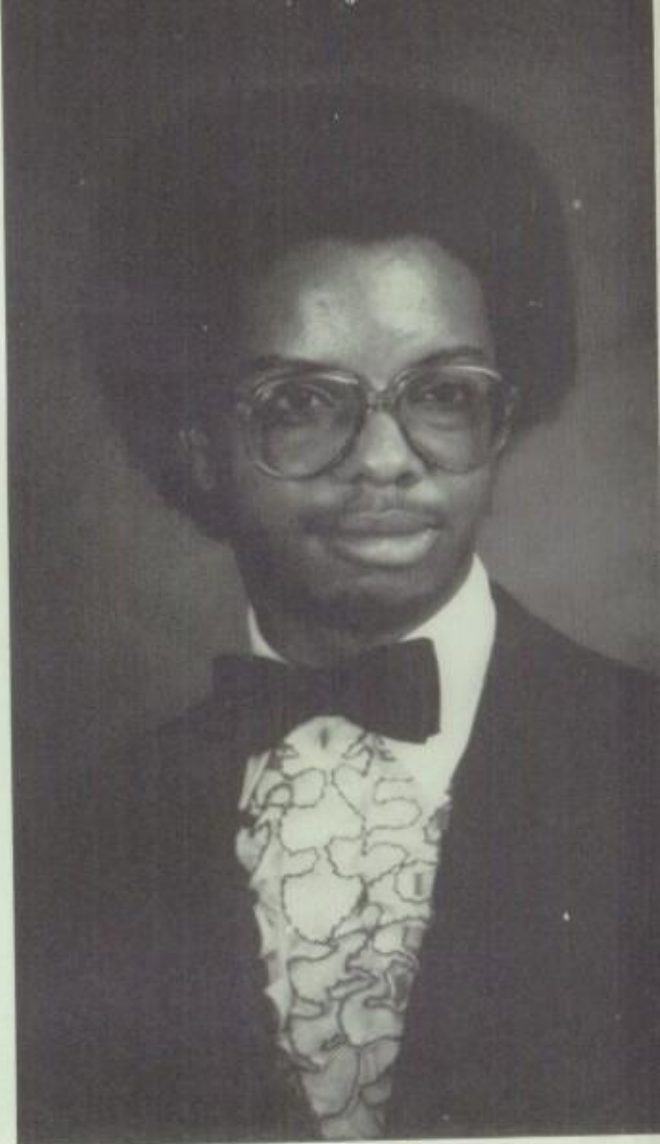

Perry Allen

Southern born, Southern bred. When I die, I'll be Southern dead.

Randy Bowden

If I were rich I would buy my diploma, but I'm so poor I can't even pay attention.

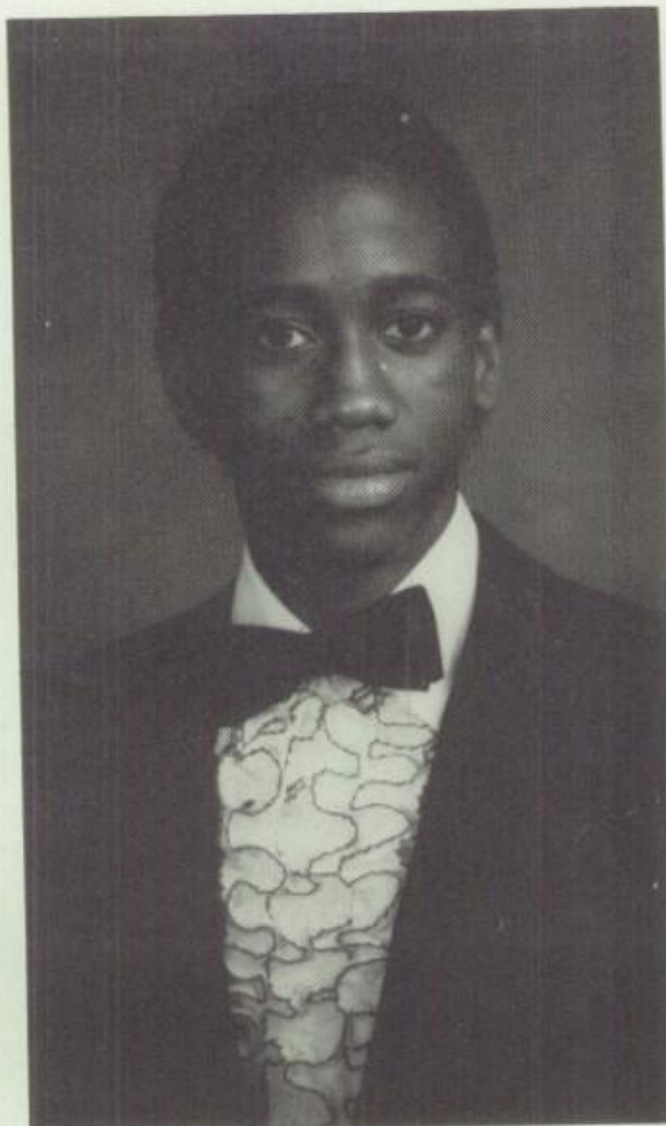

Arthur Brewster

Most folks are about as happy as they make up their minds to be.

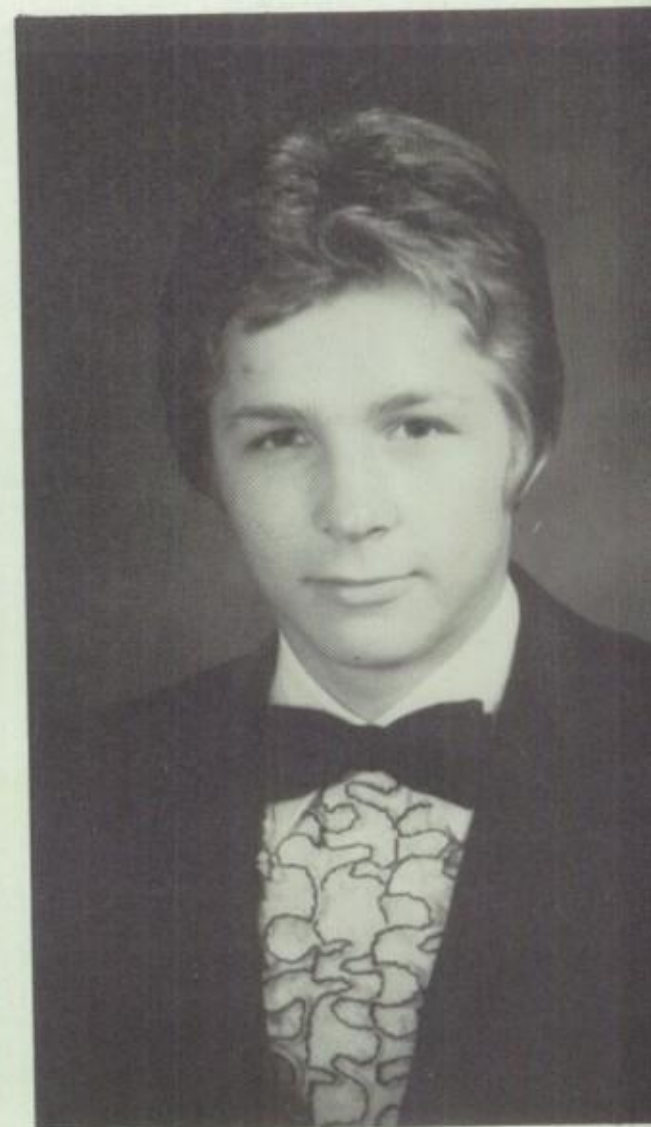

Kecia Brewster

I'm spoiled and love it.

Torris Brewster

When a guy finds love on a two-way street, it usually ends up being a dirt road in Hellamanard.

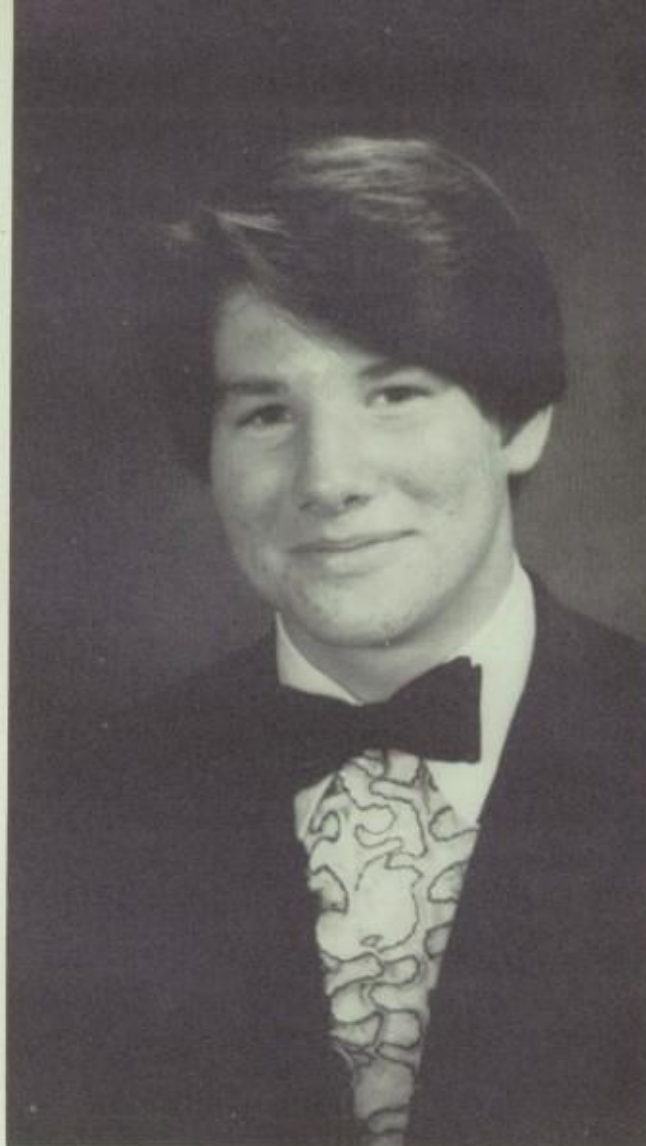

Robert Brown

When life gets tough, the tough get kicked the ribs just to make them tougher.

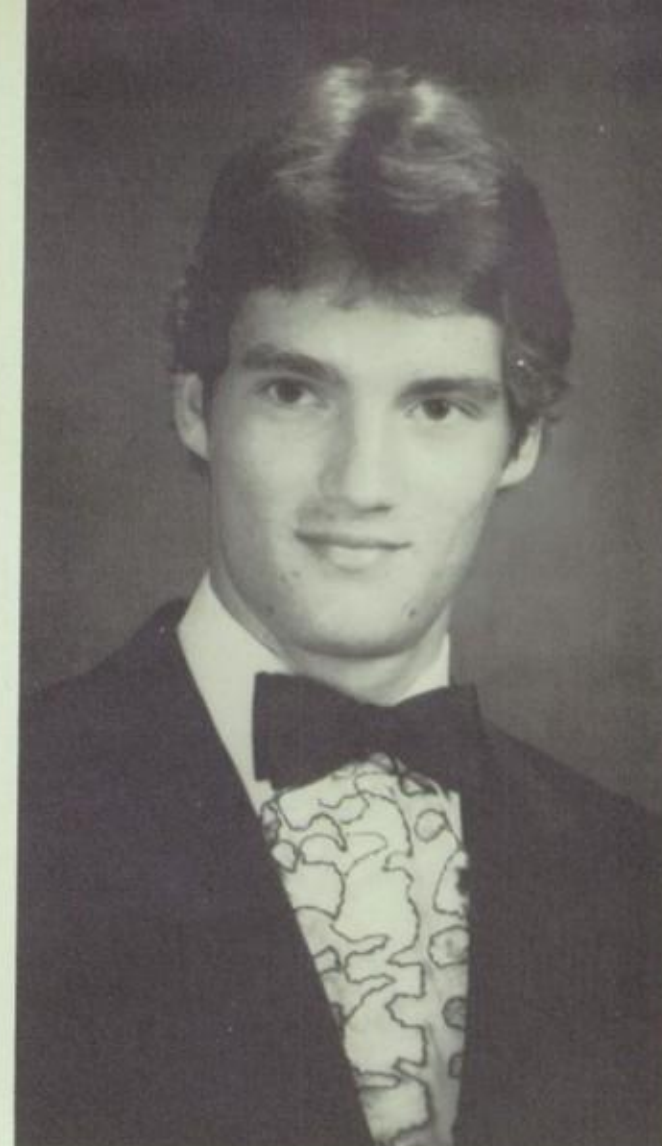

Sonya Burford

If you meet me and forget me, you've lost nothing. If you meet Jesus and forget Him, you've lost everything.

Walter Collins

Work, I love it. I could sit and watch it forever.

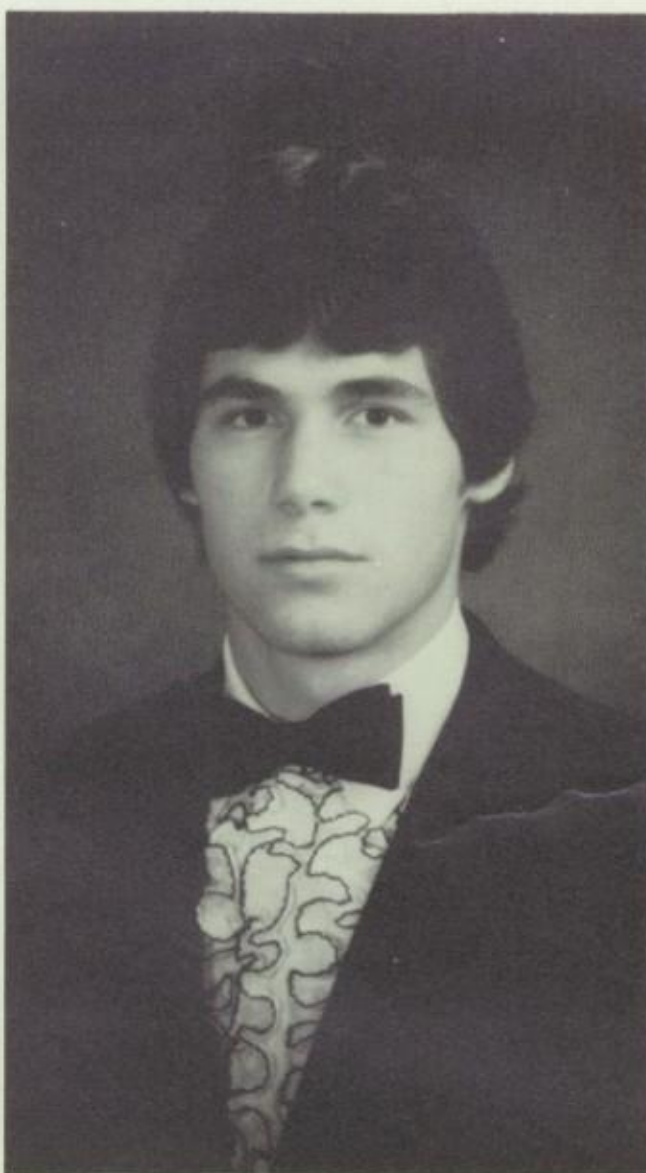

Robert Davis

All of this and brains too.

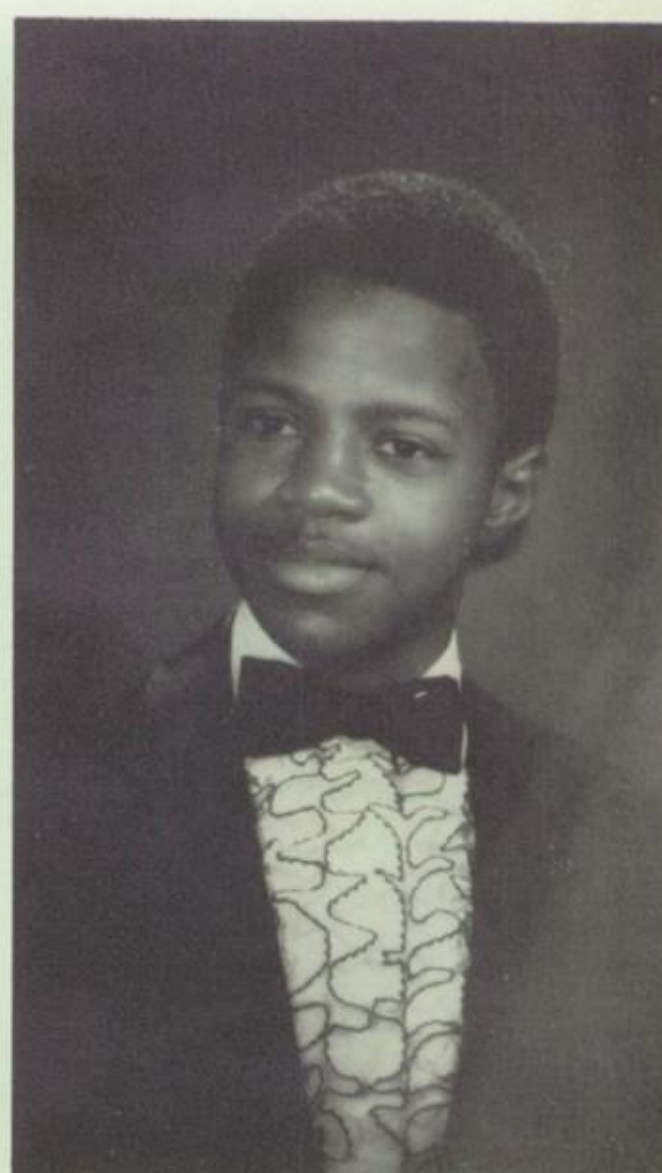

Sandy Davis

If you think education is expensive, you ought to try ignorance.

Jeff Dodgen

The thrill is not just in winning, but in the courage to play the game.

Frederick Douthard

I asked of life, "What have you to offer me?" And the answer came, "What have you to give?"

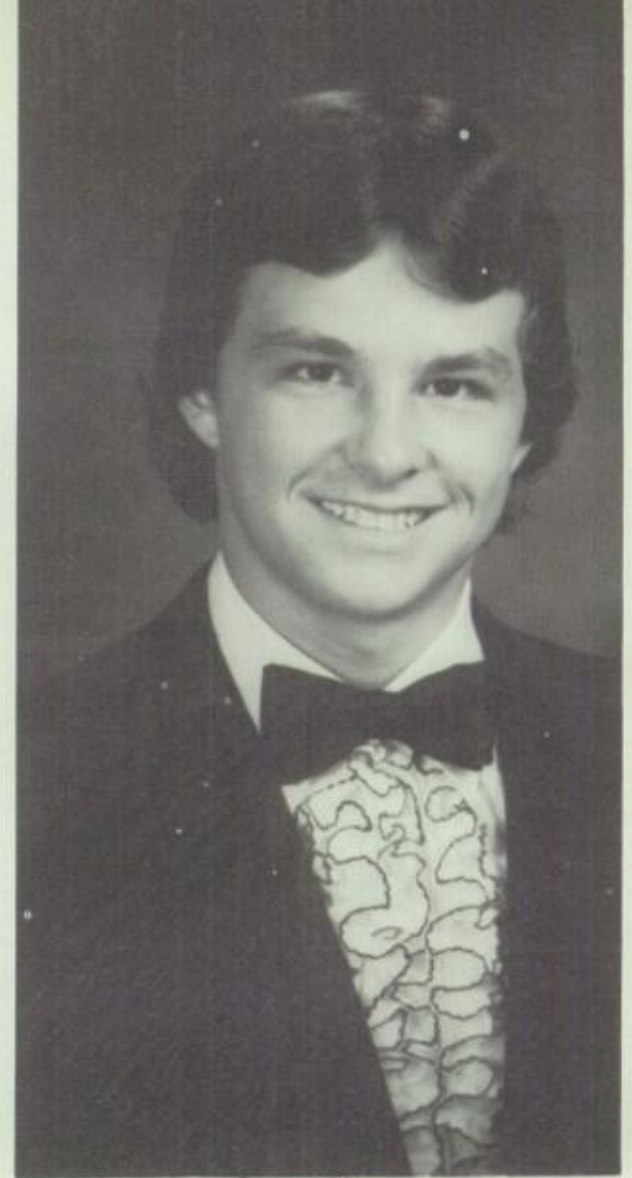

Darren Douthitt

Do not follow where the path leads. Go where there is no path and leave a trail.

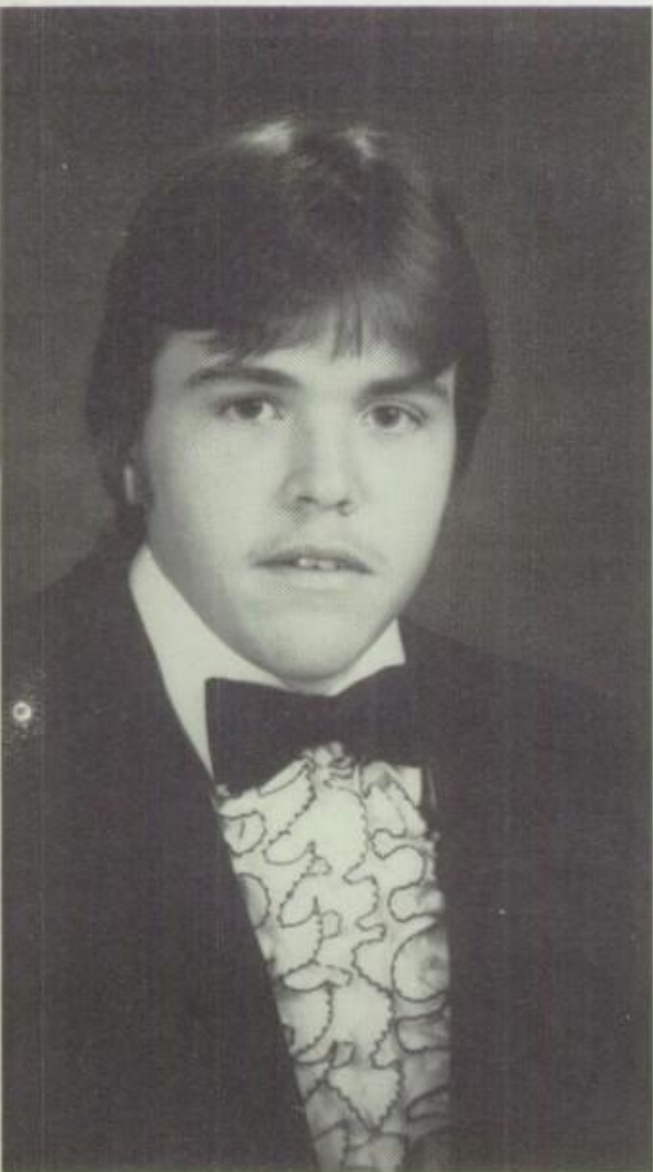

Kim Dover

You can't have rainbows till you have tears.

Steve Dover

I like my beverage on ice and my women.

Robbie Dunaway

When you get to the end of your rope, tie a knot and hang on.

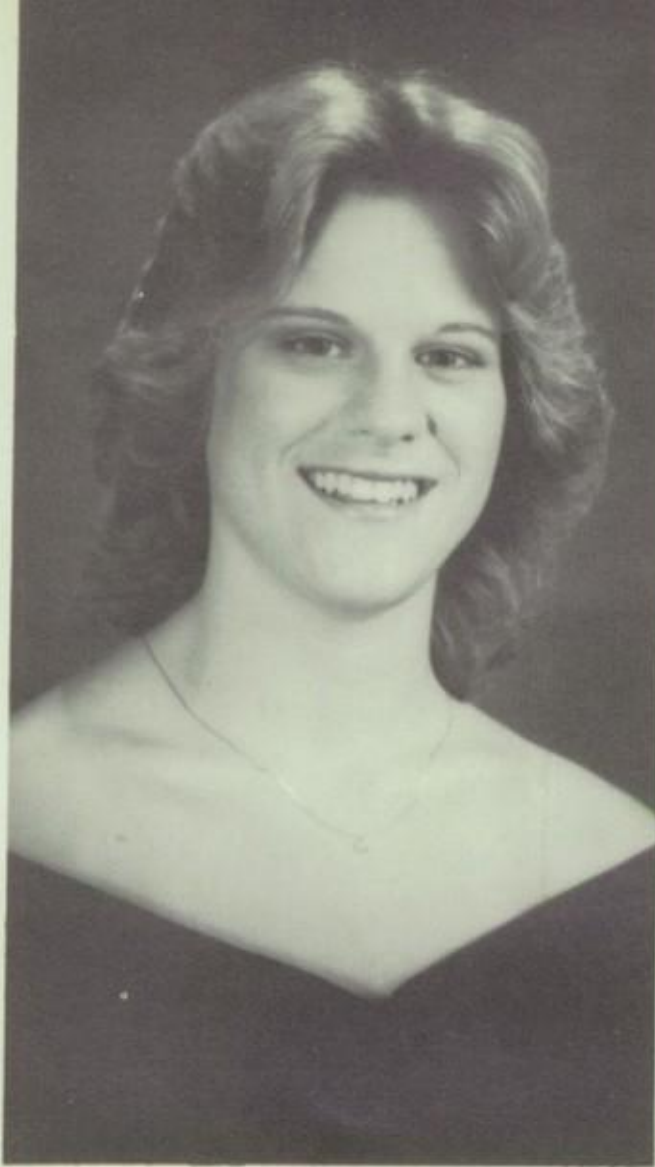

Donna Dunn

If we learn from our mistakes, I ought to be a genius.

Michelle Evans

God said it. I believe it, and that settles it!

Denise Fleming

I hate rare smiles, I love laughing.

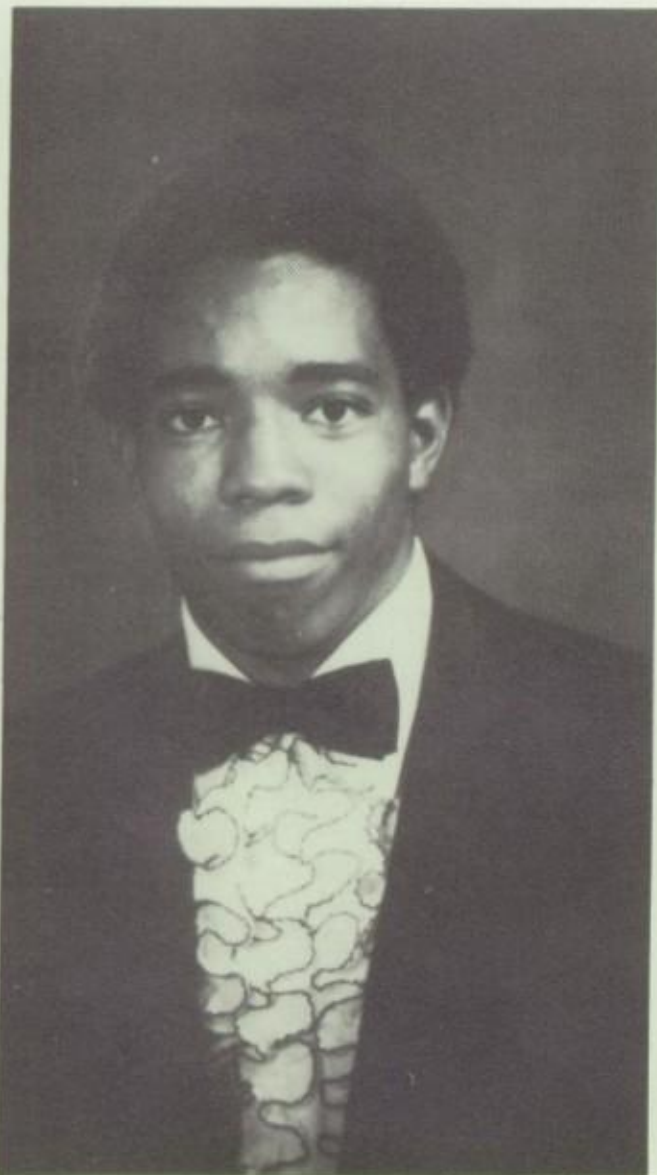

Tammy Gladden

I'm easy to please as long as I have things my way.

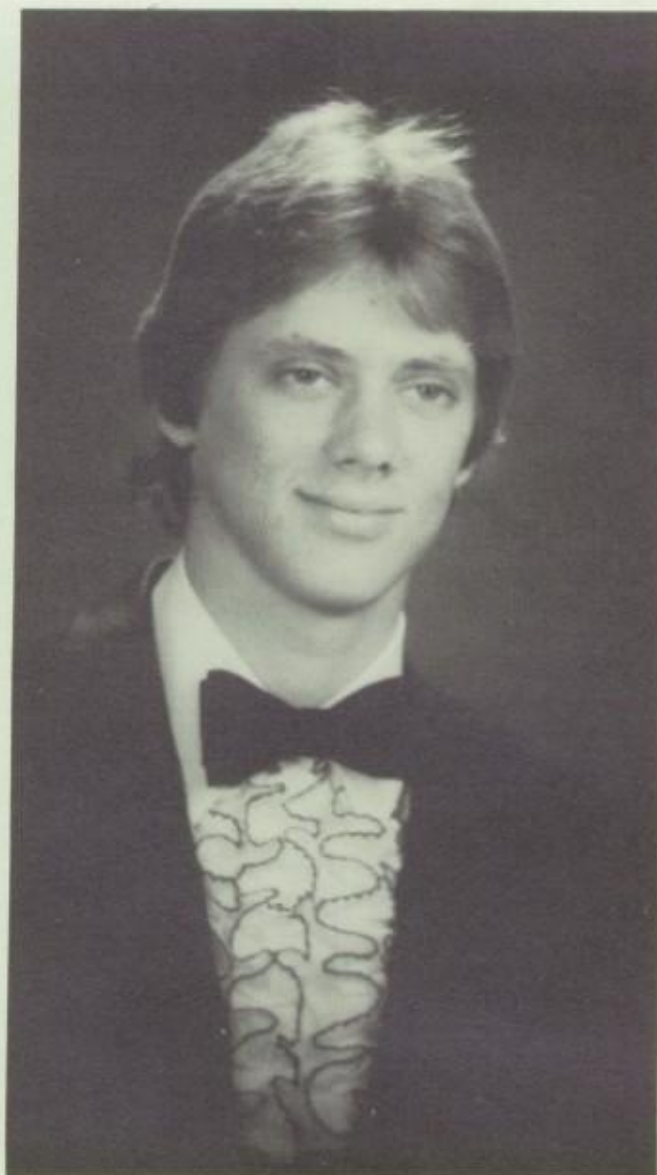

Bruce Griffin

Eat and sleep, eat and sleep, eat and sleep, there must be more to life than that. But I hope not.

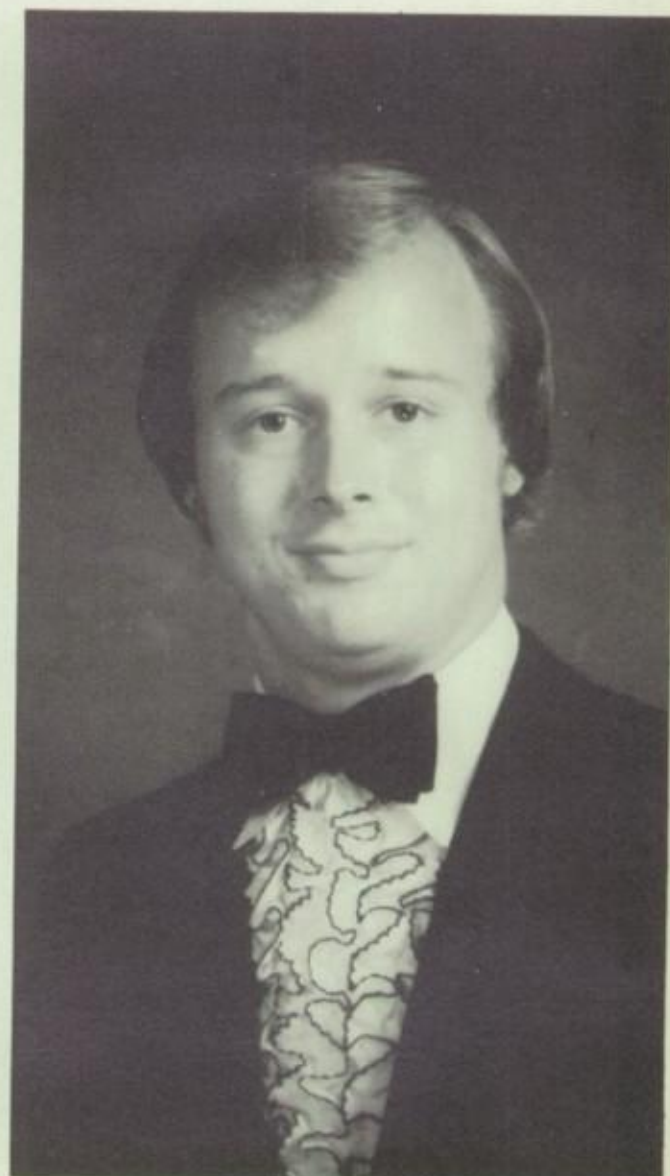

Bryan Hodge

I don't need a great deal of love, but I do need a steady supply.

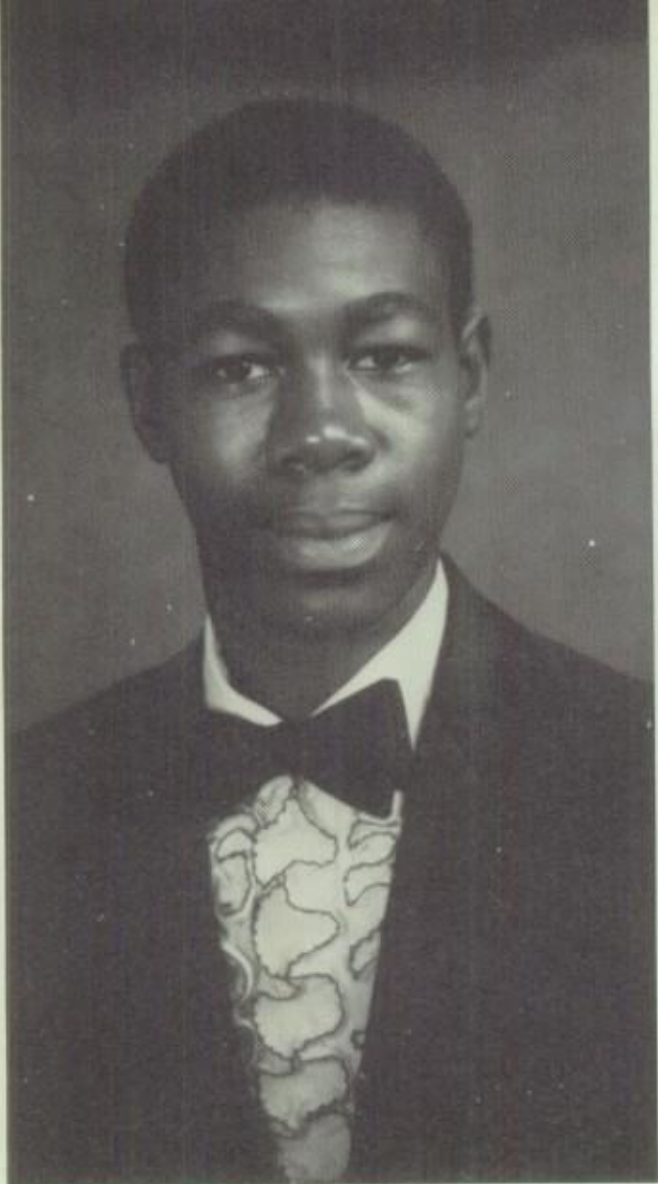

Kelly Howard

Why should I be willing to compromise when I'm the one who's right?

J. D. Hudson

May the good Lord bless us all.

Kevin Hunter

Losing isn't one of my best qualities.

Kathy Johniken

You see things as they are and ask, "Why?" But I dream things that never were and ask, "Why not?"

Tracey Johnson

The best thing about my twelve years of school is leaving the bad memories behind.

Felisa Killings

My interest is in the future because I am going to spend the rest of my life there.

Jamee Lehr

People take the word friendship for granted. True friends are rare, and I value mine.

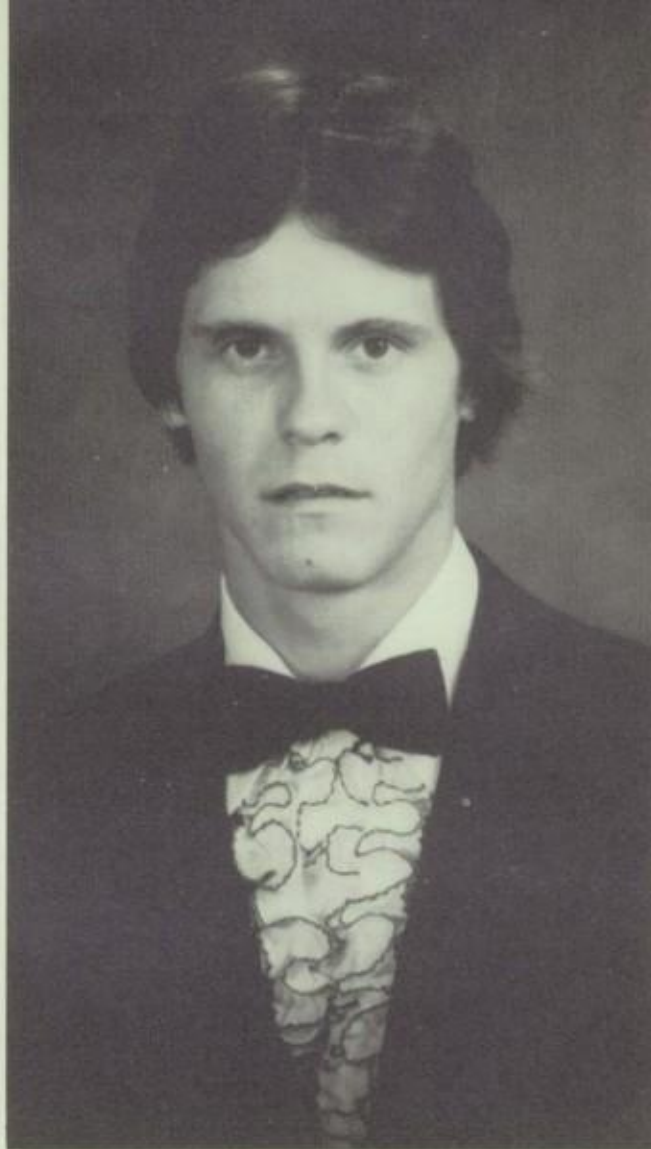

Slay Magouirk

If heaven ain't a lot like Dixie, I don't want to go.

Leah Martin

Everything I didn't do yesterday added to everything I haven't done today plus everything I won't do tomorrow completely exhausts me.

Donnie Maye

The South will rattle again.

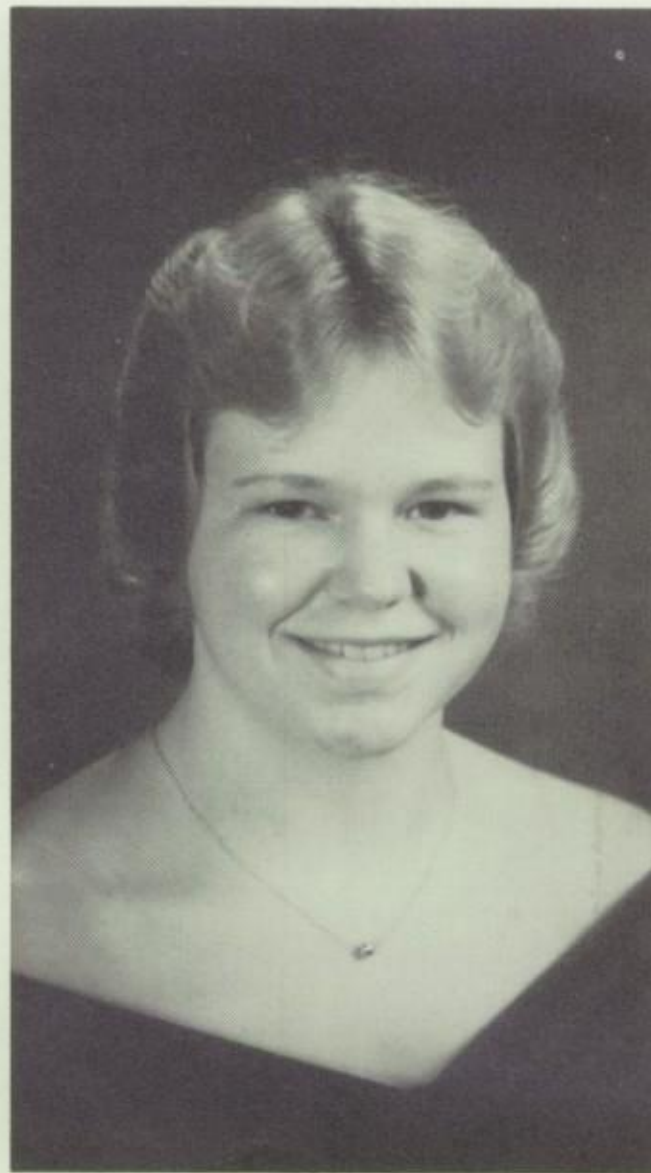

Annette McQuay

April 1 — this is the day that we are reminded what we are the other three hundred and sixty-four.

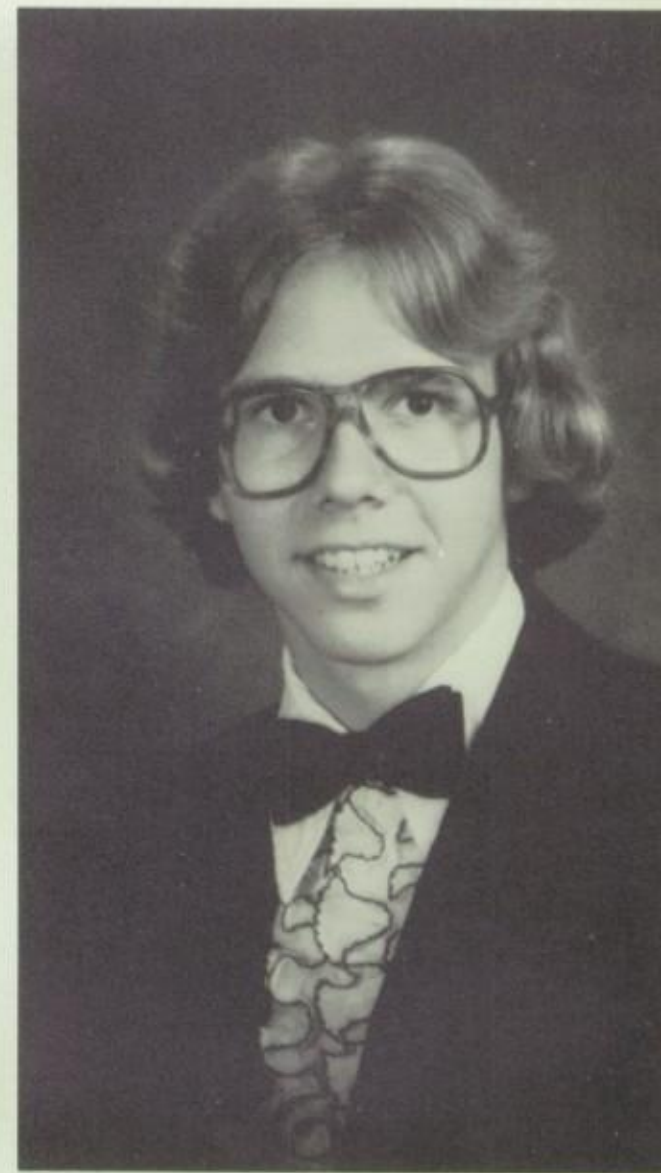

Kim Mills

Give to the world the best you have the best will come back to you.

Jammy Moses

You see things as they are and you ask, "Why?" But I dream things that never were and ask, "Why not?"

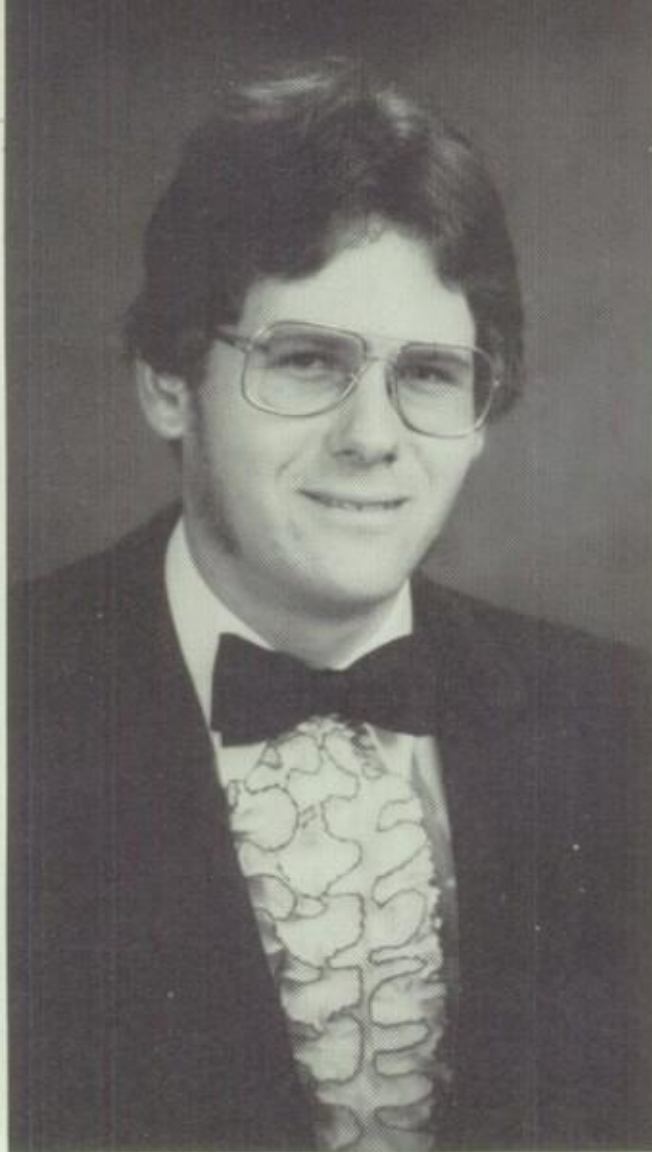

Danny Nance

The only thing achieved without effort is failure.

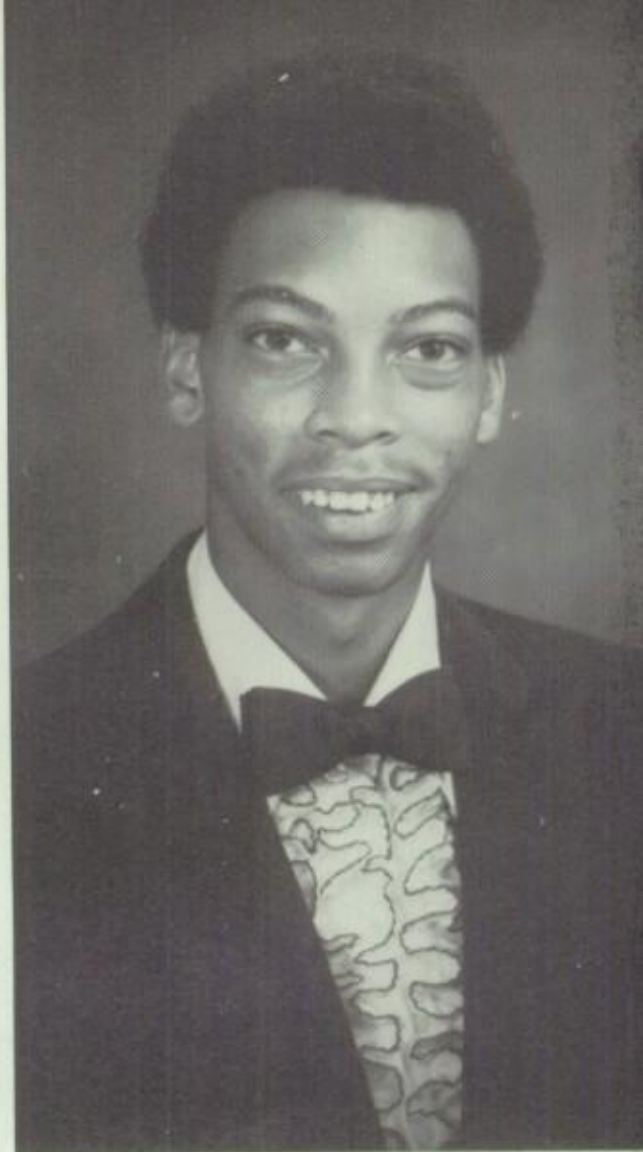

Kim Parker

Be kind, sweet, and always understanding to others and party hard!

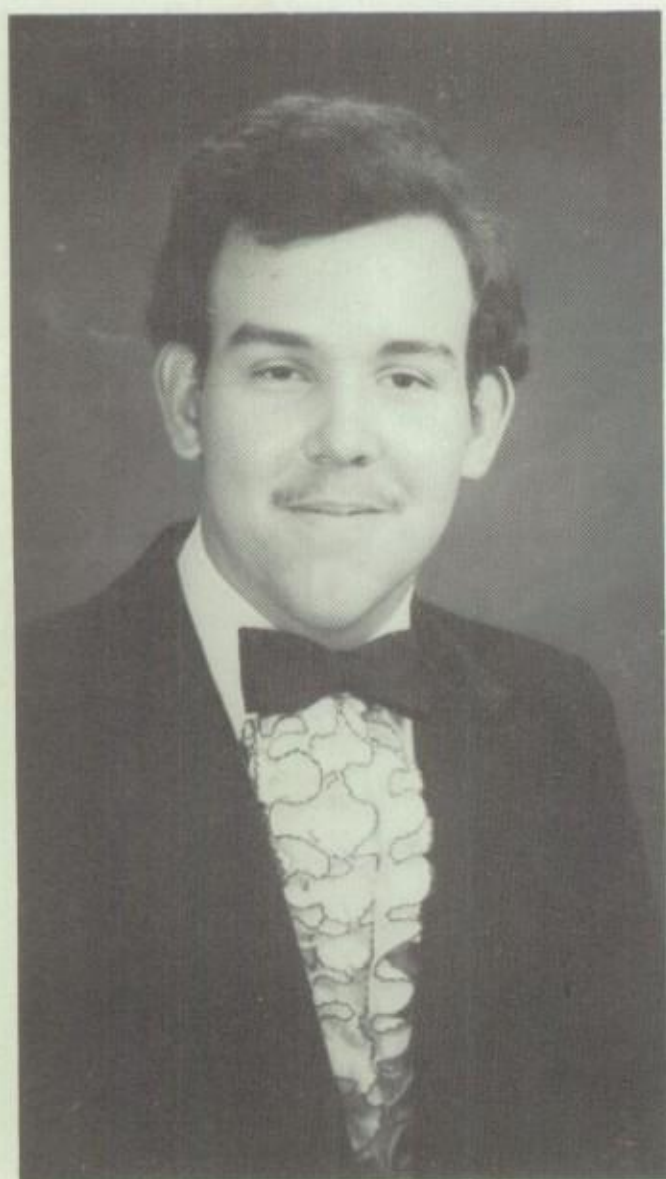

Kenneth Parton

I like my cars, my women, and my beverage.

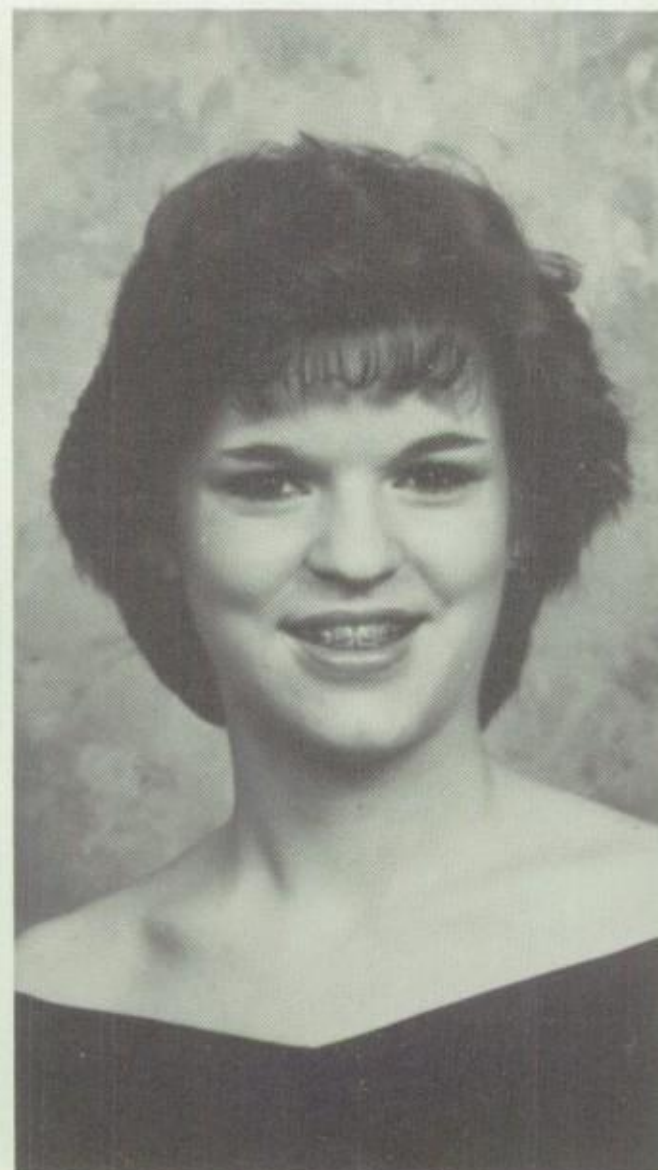

Antone Peters

The road to success is marked with tempting parking places.

Steve Phillips

I'm really innocent . . . I only look guilty.

Valita Reaves

While it is well enough to leave footprints in the sand; it is more important to leave them pointing in the right direction.

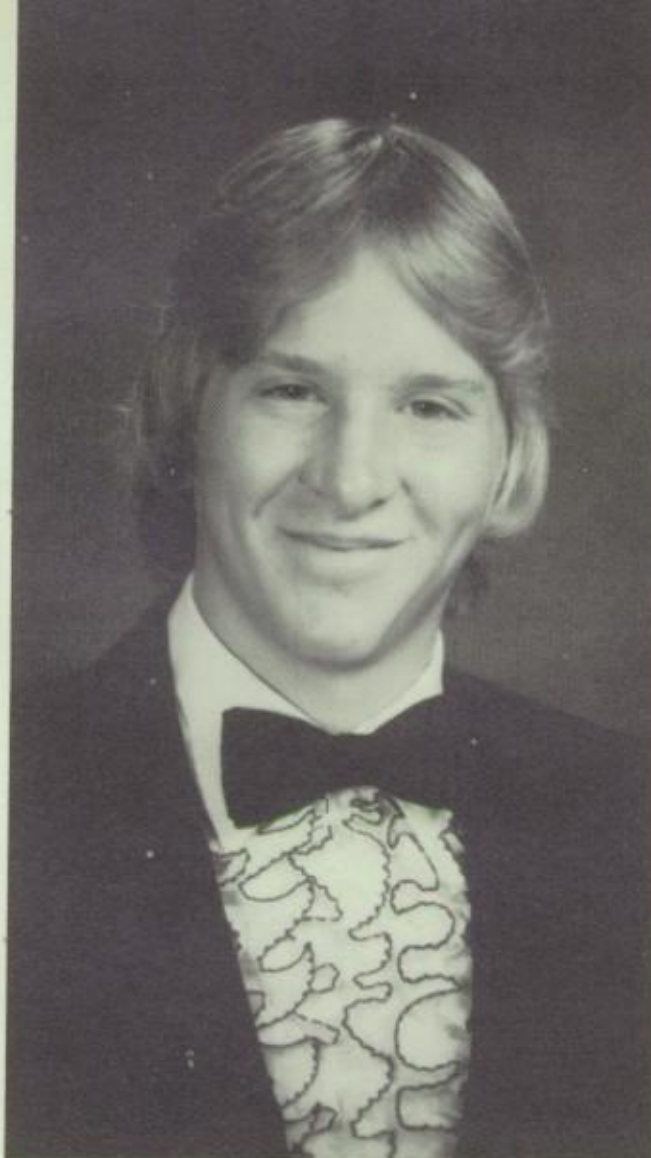

Jammy Reid

Silence makes the real conversation between friends.

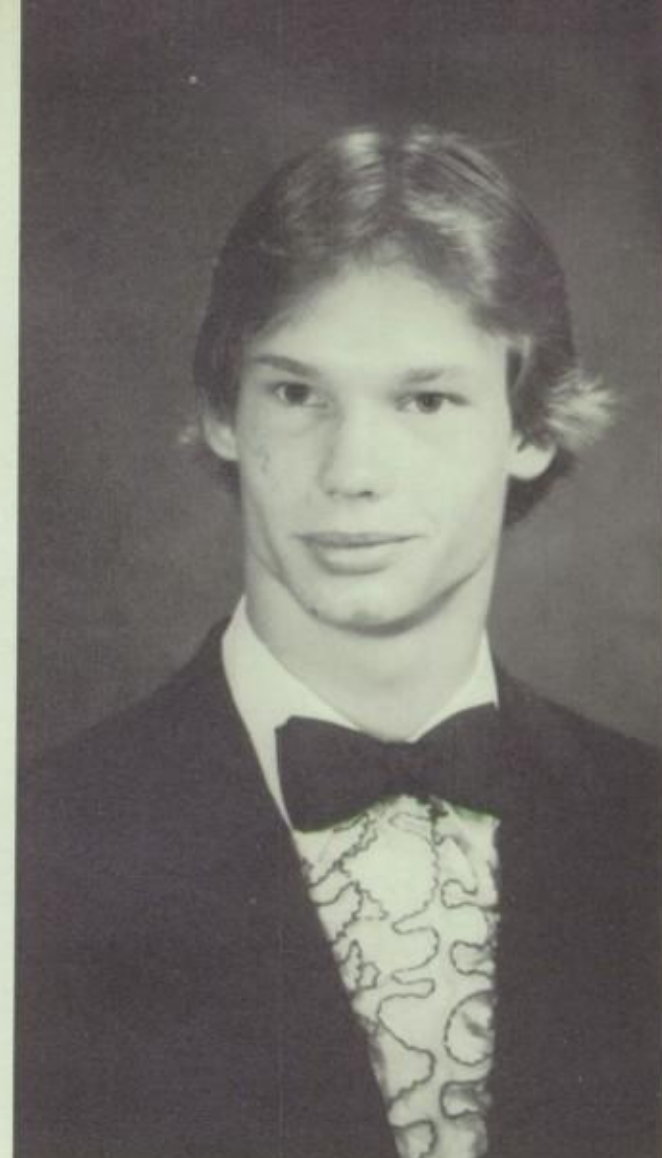

Dana Shelnutt

Never try to tell everything you know. It may take too short a time.

David Smith

Never give up on dreams.

Ben Stewart

Life's road is long and narrow, but I seem to be going the wrong way.

Veronica Sturkie

Some people make the world special just by being in it.

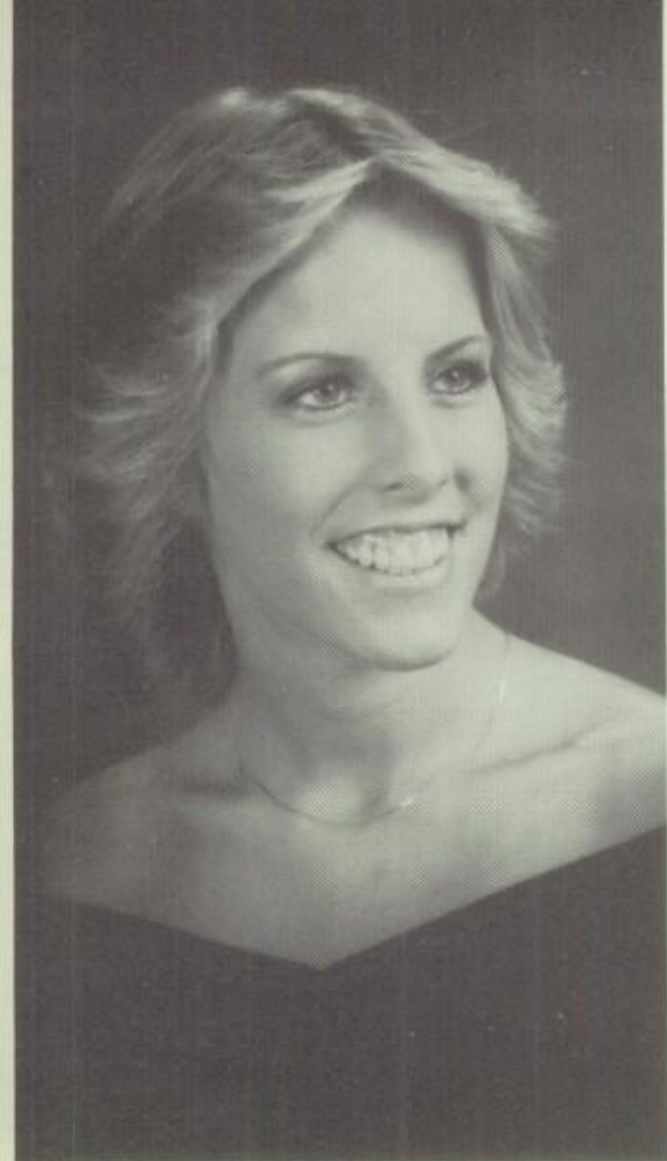

Glenda Teague

Happiness is not having what you want, but wanting what you have.

Candi Thompson

Love at first sight is often cured by a good second look.

Paula Thompson

All the special gifts and powers from God will someday end, but love goes on forever.

Norma Tollison

What you are is God's gift to you, what you make of your life is your gift to God.

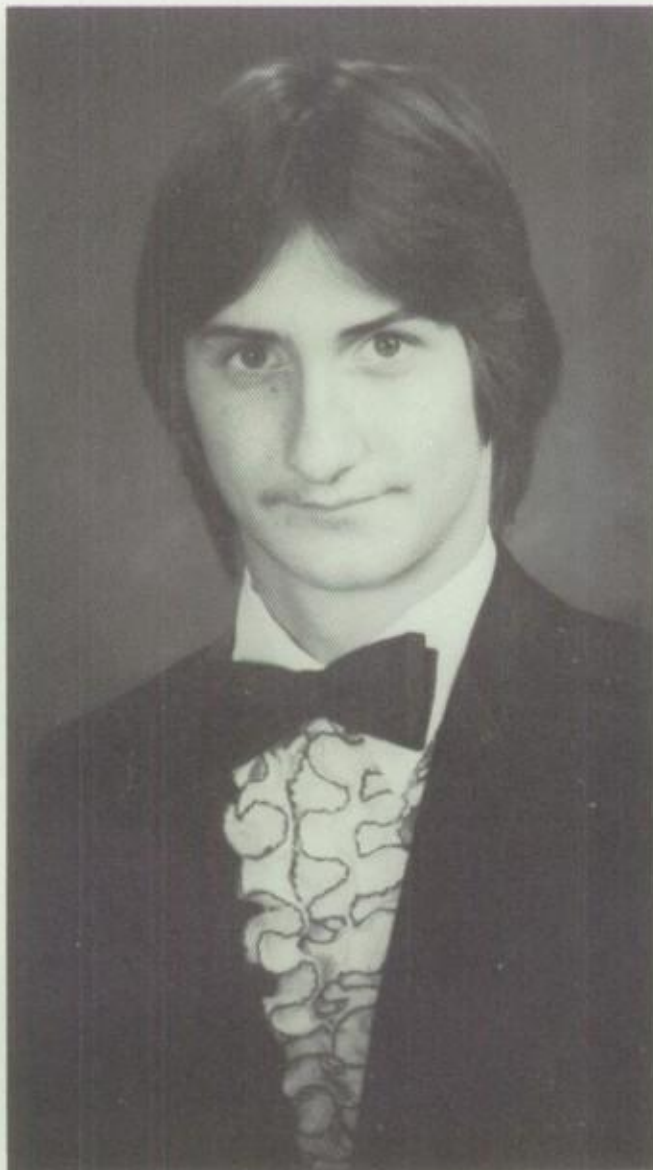

Tammy Usrey

I spend half my time wishing for things I could have if I didn't spend half my time wishing.

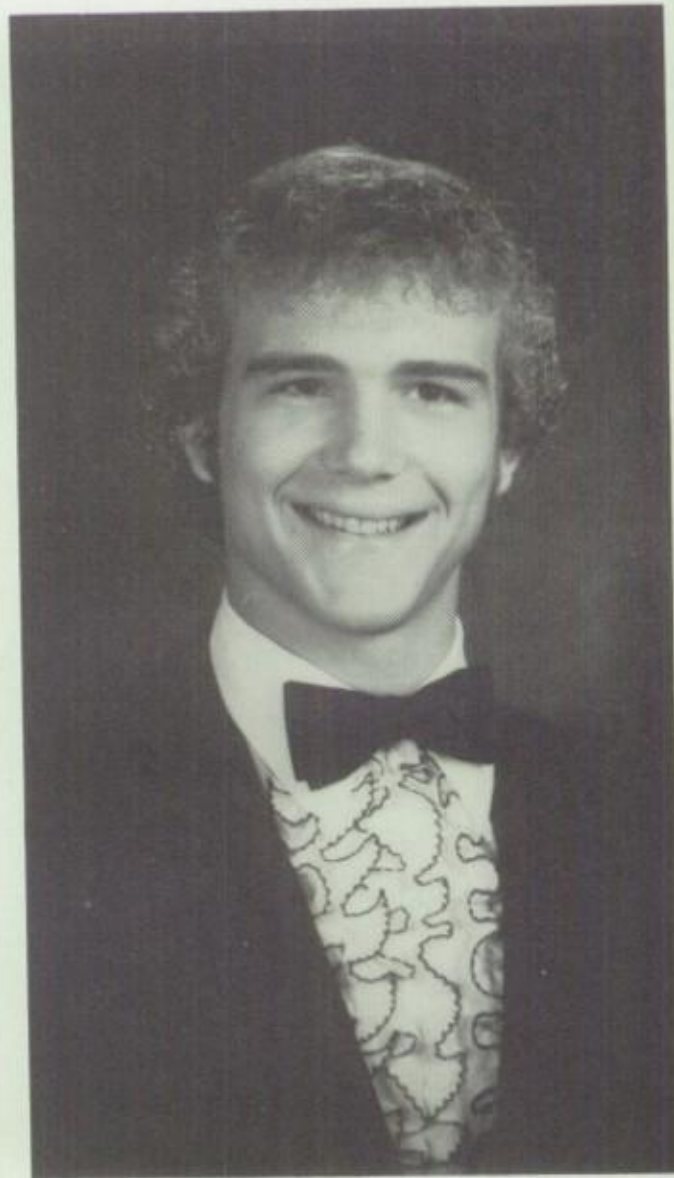

Tina Usrey

If you love something, set it free. If it comes back to you, it's yours. If it doesn't, it never was.

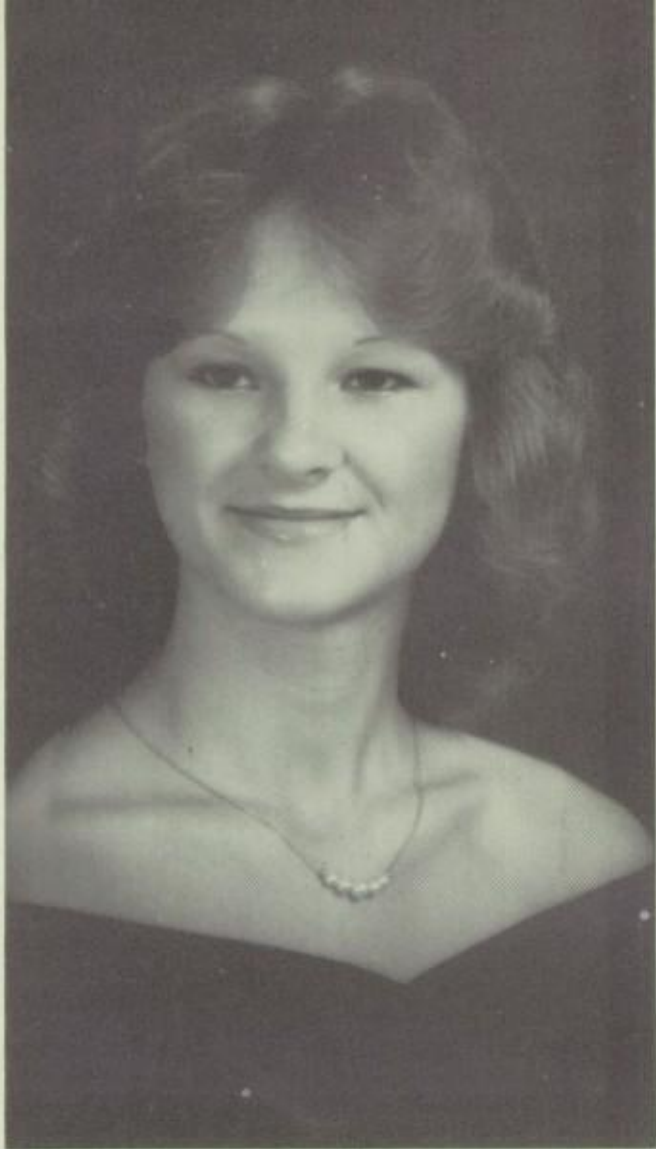

Jimmy Watts

My heroes have always been cowboys.

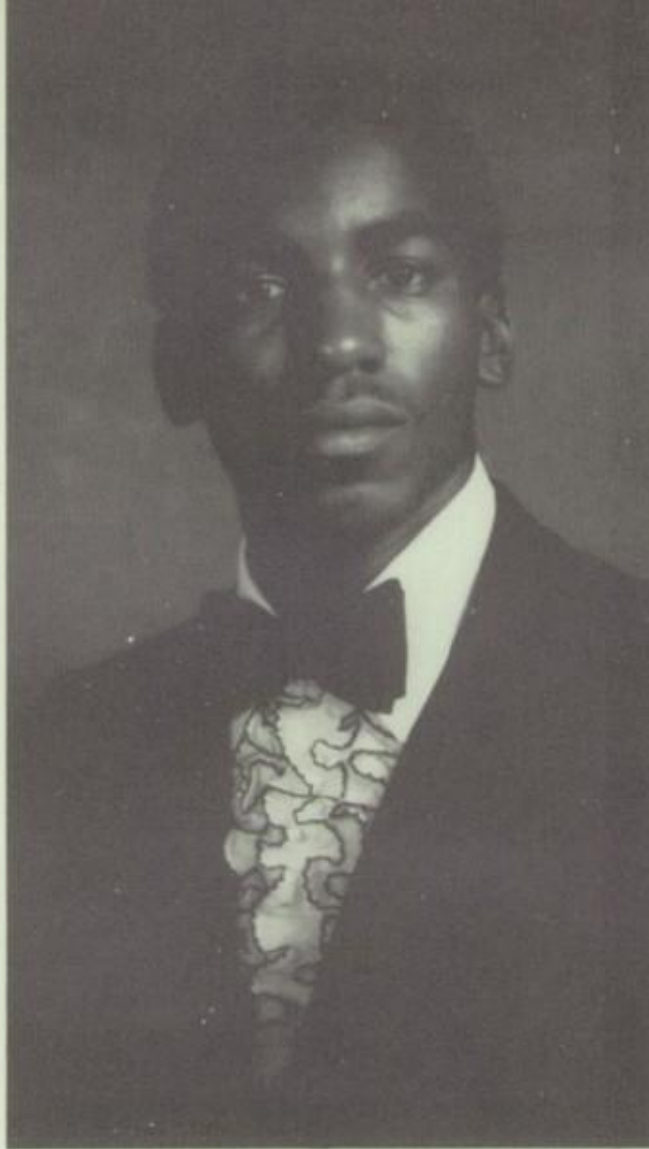

Blake Whiteside

I gotta shotgun, rifle, and a four wheel drive, and a country boy can survive.

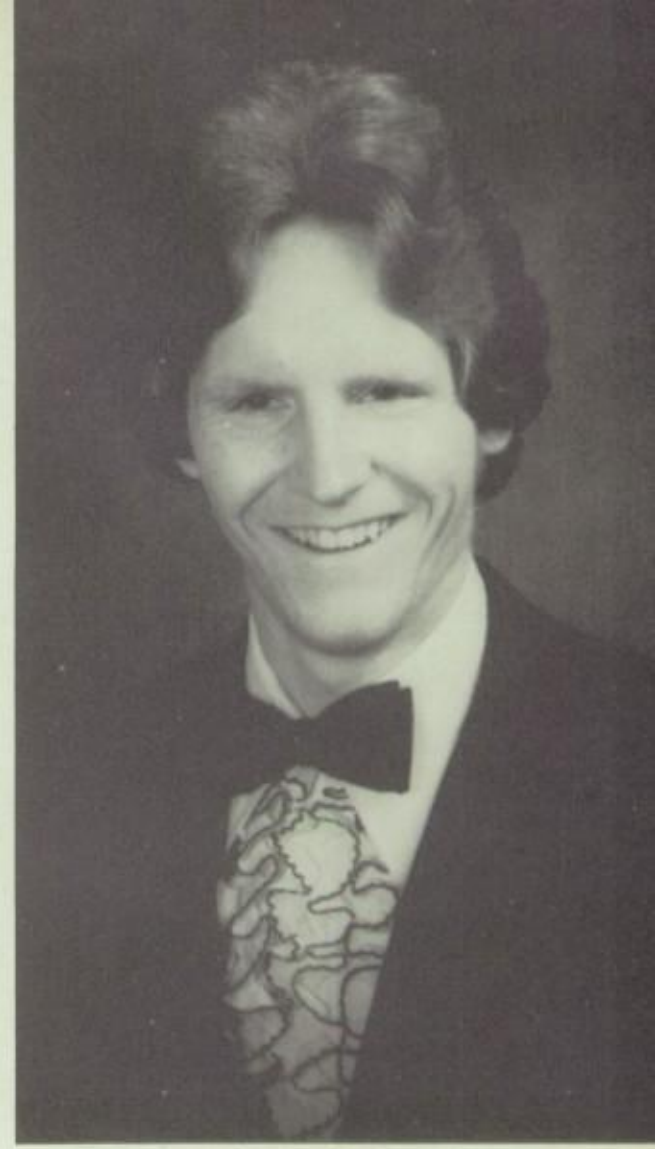

Brenda Whitley

The great thing in life is not where you stand, but where you are going.

Edward Woods

If I always do right, it will gratify some people and astonish the rest. But like my mom says, "Fat chance."

Bobby Woodrow

All my rowdy friends have not settled down.

Last Will and Testament

I, Perry Allen, leave to my brother Eddie my football number, my ability, my strength, and my effort.

I, Randy Bowden, leave my ability to climb a flagpole with a six foot flag and two jars of Vaseline in my pockets to anyone who wants it!

I, Arthur Brewster, hereby leave Rodney Thomas and Tim Buchanan the ability to pass Mrs. Reed's class and remain sane.

I, Darrell Brewster, of sound mind and body, hereby leave to my cousins Kenneth and Bernard the ability to cheat and not get caught. To Tim Buchanan I leave the ability to be tough when Mrs. Reed gets rough.

I, Kecia Evette Brewster, do hereby leave all my ability to Generalla Sturkie and all my strawberry shortcake to Tracy Johniken because she needs it.

I, Torris Brewster, being of sound mind and body, hereby leave my tremendous ability to play football and basketball to Kendall Sturkie who can't run or shoot.

I, Robert J. Brown Jr., leave all offensive lineman the ability to hustle and to give 110% to Coach Winn because he deserves it! To my sister I leave my ability to pass. And to anybody who wants it, I leave my ability to mess with Ms. Gatlin's mind 6th period.

I, Sonya Burford, do hereby leave Ohatchee School without any Burfords.

I, Walter Collins, being of sound body and wise mind, wish the Junior Class the best of luck for their senior year and for the rest of their lives.

I, Alfonso "Track" Cox, leave my ability to play basketball to the Senior Class of "84."

I, Robert Davis, leave to my brother and sister the ability to graduate and smile about it.

I, Sandy Davis, do hereby leave to Sonya Stewart the ability to put up with Mrs. Paschal next year and not miss any days.

I, Jeff Dodgen, leave to B.E., R.S., and E.D. the ability to get W.A.O. and not get caught. To Chris and Pam I leave my ability to drive and twenty-five dollars for Pam to take D.E. one more time.

I, Fredrick Douthard, leave to Dorothera and Eleanora the intellectual experience and prosperity that I have gained through the years. (Love ya!)

I, Darren Douthitt, leave to my sister Jeanetta the ability to make her twelve years at Ohatchee as wonderful as mine were and over half as successful.

I, Kim Dover, hereby leave to all willing and able-bodied brunettes the ability to make the best of every situation that comes their way. Be the best and outshine the rest! To Kristi, Kevin, and Kandy, I leave my love and prayers. I take all my memories, thoughts, and friendships . . . and leave.

I, Steve Dover, being of absent mind and mangled body, leave to Eric "Meat" Mashburn the ability to get off a bull gracefully and to enjoy a bottle of Jack D.

I, Robbie Dunaway, leave to my brother Craig all the days I didn't take and to Joseph C. the hope that one day he will graduate.

I, Donna Dunn, leave Sonya Stewart the ability to know enough to pass herself and friends around her.

I, Michelle Evans, leave Juanita Pierce all the strength & courage to face another year of books, teachers, and school in general.

I, Denise Fleming, leave to my brother Travis and my sister Darlene my ability to make it through school, and to Kristy W. I leave all of the good memories we had my senior year!

I, Tammy Marie Gladden, leave nothing because I need everything I can get.

I, Bruce Griffin, being of insane mind and tired body, leave my pillow to anyone who needs it. And I leave ya'll Ms. Gatlin. So long.

I, Bryan Hodge, do hereby leave all the lovely young ladies my love and affection. To Vinh Rocker I leave my ability to dance, and to George Teague, I leave my finesse.

I, Kelly Howard, being of insane mind and tired body, leave to Kym Magouirk and Toni Griffin the best of luck in school and to "Welldigger", the pains of school and Ms. Gatlin. To Pam Sewell I leave $25.00 to take Drivers' Education.

I, J. D. Hudson, Jr., do sincerely hope that I need not write what I will behind for I pray that all the love and thanks will be known without words and reminders.

I, Kevin Hunter, do hereby leave to Stefan H. the ability to do any and everything and not get caught. And to "Meat" I leave the ability to ride without getting bucked off.

I, Kathleen Johniken, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave to my niece Tracy all my ability to make it through the last four years of high school and to pass Ms. Gatlin's class! Good Luck!

I, Tracy Johnson, hereby leave my good luck in escaping Ms. Gatlin's term paper to Connie Brewster and my ability with the guys to my sister, Latonya.

I, Felisa Killings, leave to Cedric and James Killings my ability to make it, even though there is nothing to make it with; and to Alicia, Muriel and Jason Killings I leave my patience, wisdom, and understanding with the hope that they will use it wisely.

I, James Charlene Lehr, do hereby leave to Eric Mashburn and Chris Stephens the best senior year possible. And to Ms. Gatlin I leave a lot of prayers for the coming year because you're gonna need them. And to my sister Sam the best four years of school possible.

I, Slay Magouirk, being of sound mind and body, leave to Kim Magouirk all my love and the ability to pass Ms. Gatlin's class. To Kym Magouirk I leave all my good looks and to "Welldigger", "Double up", and "Mustard", the ability to get WIDE OPEN. And to Pam Sewell I leave a new set of Monroe shocks.

I, Leah Martin, being of slightly perverted mind and pale body, do hereby pass on my honorable title of "Fun Buns" to Colonel Dobson, and to him I leave a receipt for $1.37.

I, Annette McQuay, leave to my sister Mandy, the ability to make it through the next two years and the ability to catch a Peaks Hills "Bro." To Pam S. and Mandy I leave this final word . . . ALABAMA!

I, Kim Mills, leave to my brother Jamie my fondest wishes in hopes that his two years remaining at Ohatchee High will be a great success.

I, Tammy Moses, leave to the juniors all my books and to Craig Bernard the ability to be crazy through the 12th grade.

I, Danny Nane, do hereby bequeath to cousin David the ability and means to carry on the great Nane tradition, to my sister Dana whatever I'm finished with that she may deem useful, and to next year's forestry judging team directions to the Hawk's Nest.

I, Kimberly W. Parker, do hereby leave all my ability to play volleyball to all my fellow and future volleyball players, and all the pleasures of living it up, loving it up and never giving up on a good thing to Generalla Sturkie, Jackie Collins, and Susan Redding (Sudie Belle).

I, Kenneth Parton, leave to Sonya Stewart the memories of the trade school bus and my ability to lay out of school.

I, Antone "Gonzo" Peters, do hereby leave my ability to produce the best to Rodney and all those guys who can't.

I, Homer Phillips, being of corrupt mind and unsound body, leave to anyone who wants it the ability to hide behind a small shrub while someone puts a Confederate flag on the flagpole.

I, Valita Reaves, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave all my prayers and love to my brothers, Rusty and Marty, with the hopes that they will get out of Ohatchee High all they desire and make it all the way with a smile on their faces. To my teachers, I leave sincerest gratitude for helping me make it through my twelve years.

I, Tammy Reid, leave to Dewanna Cox my ability to graduate.

I, Dayna Shelnut, do hereby leave to sister Terri the ability to make it through high school. To Ian and Tricia I leave my love. To Pam S. and Mandy M. I leave all the luck in the world with "Total Twinkle."

I, David Smith, do hereby leave to any future teachers' aide of Col. Dobson my ability to set up chemistry experiments and not disturb Mrs. Morris . . . too much.

I, Ben Stewart, leave to Shane Mitchell my ability, which I never used in the 1982 season, to play split-end.

I, Veronica Sturkie, do hereby leave all my love and affection that I have for man to the Bobsy Twins, Marcella, and Generalla.

I, Charles Teague, do hereby leave to Jeffrey the ability to be cool and to Kay the ability to be smart.

I, Glenda Teague, properly leave Wanda and Jeffrey the ability to make the years count and to Sharon B. my ability to keep all the girls in line.

I, Candi Thompson, leave to Mandy N. and Michelle J. the love of being a majorette, the hardwork, and the ability to make it through football season. I also leave the band all my love and the best of luck.

I, Paula Thompson, leave Sabrina Howard to carry on the proven fact that blondes have more fun. And I leave Kellie Shelnutt and Rodney Gallahar to carry on the family tradition at Ohatchee High School.

I, Norma Tollison, being of sound mind and tired body, hereby leave all the joy and excitement of a senior year to the class of 84.

I, Tammy Usrey, leave to Toni G. and my sister Kim the ability to carry on the theory proven true by Kim D. and myself that brunettes have just as much fun as blondes; they just don't get caught, and as a small encouragement, Go For It! And last but not least, I leave to Pam Sewell the "sweetness" that it takes to talk Col. Dobson out of all tests.

I, Tina Usrey, being of destroyed brain and tired body, leave the Seniors of "84" the privilege and the honor of being in Ms. Gatlin's class for a whole year. Good Luck! And to Milton H. and Clint U. I leave all my love and affection in the coming years. You'll need it!

I, Jimmy Watts, leave to everyone that drinks the ability to quit.

I, Blake Whiteside, leave to Randy Simpson my ability to still dip and get by with it.

I, Brenda Whitley, do hereby leave my brother Thomas and my sister Tammy my best wishes.

I, Edward M. Woods, do solemnly swear to leave Ohatchee, Ms. Gatlin, and the rest of the Ohatchee faculty . . . Alone!

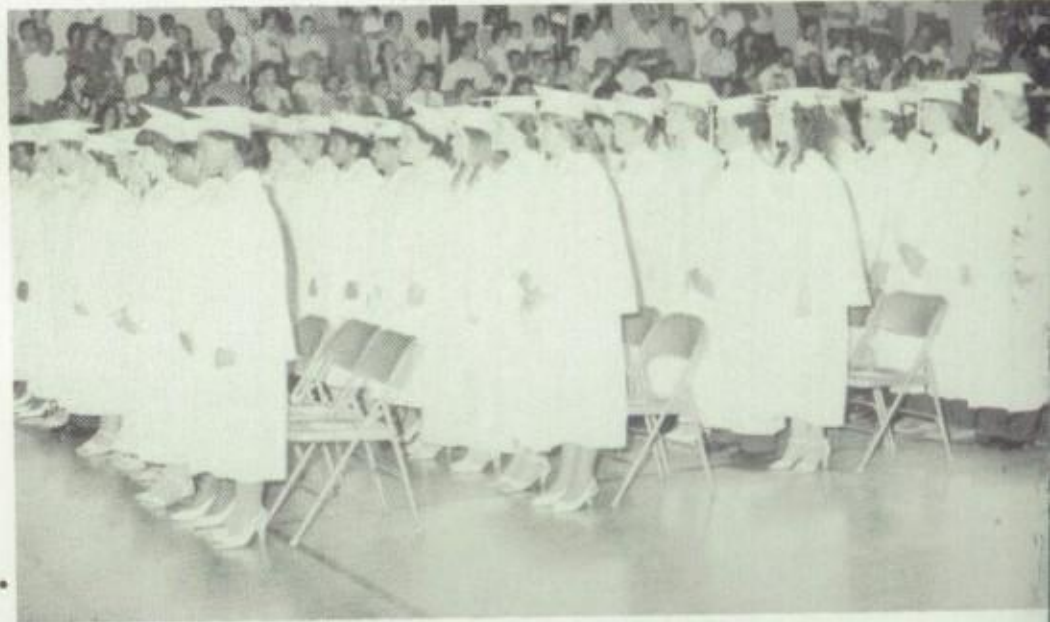

I, Bobby Woodrow, leave to future seniors my ability to pull the gym door open so they can play basketball at midnight.

FHA Initiation

Anna and Patty dress up for the day.

F.H.A. Banquet

Did someone tell a joke?

Waiting patiently.

Let's get down to business.

Which is older? The one on the left or the one on the right?

Let's munch out.

Boys in FHA?

What do you see?

What's wrong, Sam?

Wide open!

Smile!

Pretty girls.
